

Chairman Powell,

Control of the media can often mean control or profound influence of public opinion. In order for our country to retain any last shreds of democratic integrity, it is absolutely crucial that there not be the possibility of a media monopoly. Please allow democratic debates on this topic before voting on this issue. Please vote no.

Ron Stimmel